

New Creation World Newsletter

April, 2013

Dear Soul-Traveling Companions,

Welcome to Wolfgang's and mine (Soleil) combined newsletter. As our Hladina and Soul of Nations work and life's dedication has merged into one aspiration for the progressive manifestation, of what The Mother referred to as the New Creation. The individual and collective aspects of healing and evolution must move forward together in these accelerated times.

As often happens Wolfgang and I learned so much from all of you, as we provided workshops for you to make discoveries and experience deep healing both personally and with your nations, from mid February to mid March. And this time through Germany and Netherlands our sense of gratitude went deeper than ever for all the true heart qualities that were shared in each location with each person.

Thank You!

We were blessed to land in the cozy home of Christa R. Where we could adjust to the 9 hour time change.

An other Christa arrived with roses in mid February! These roses were en route to a Monday wedding but Christa first made a large heart on the outdoor patio. This gorgeous heart inspired us through the first Soul of Nation workshop and set the tone for our entire journey. We were treated to the finest ayurvedic cooking by these two Christas and honestly now, the most delicious layered cake of my life!

We were additionally very happy that our long time friends and supporters, Charlotte and Rudolf Nonas, made the effort to travel through the snow to join us. At 80, they are proof that we can all continue to expand our consciousness, learn, and benefit from trying new approaches to nation healing and the soul. As you can see both of the Christas drew hearts as their final description of the meeting of the true Psychic Being (soul in evolution) of Germany and their personal embodied soul centers. We left Königswinter with full hearts and tummies:>)

The warm welcome at the 11th century castle in Heynitz by organizers and hosts Valeska, Eike and Lisa, seemed to melt the snow. As my first time deep in the countryside of eastern Germany, one hour from Dresden, I was surprised by the felt-sense difference to the ultra fashion forward shopping malls of Berlin. Although the castle passageways reminded me of the Harry Potter films, our hearts held their own magic of adventuring to a oneness beyond time and living a connectedness of the soul. This context provided the safety and Sacredness to dive into the true soul of Germany which nurtures all of its people and plants, east and west. Wolfgang and I were deeply moved by the group's willingness to touch this core and move forward in this soul love.

We were also inspired by the many projects and communities that the various participants are leading and dynamically involved with. We learned alot and the ground was set for future workshops.

We are so grateful for everyone who attended. We truly look forward to several collaborations which are in the works, stemming from our time together.

Back in Berlin, with our SACB hosts, Isa and Muna, we enjoyed their laughter as Northern Germany sprang to springtime, if only for a few days, in the otherwise coldest March on record. We are thrilled that these dear friends are coming to the AUM conference in our hometown in Ashland, Oregon in June. It made the farewell hugs easier. We were also thankful for the evening meetings at the center with recently returned Aurovilians and thoughtful discussions with them other SACB members. We are still hoping Georg feels called by The Mother and the shamanic howling wolves to join us in Discovering the Soul of America this summer.

As winter returned in blizzarding doses in Hamburg, again the cold just seemed to fuel the heart fires of warmth and aspiration. Ortwin and his professional partner Fiona welcomed us back to their Integrale Yogaschule for an other Hladina workshop. As their members are already schooled in going deeply into the cells with breath and focused awareness, we could, as a group easily discover the information and wisdom held through the mind of the cells. As Wolfgang has also experienced many inner journeys through these last 8 years in the Hladina Method, his sensitive translation of deep experiences was especially appreciated by many in the group. On Sat. each participant found an inner child part that wanted to be reintegrated with the Psychic Being (embodied soul).

From this healing experience, we ventured into fun realms on Sunday by each person turning a creative project into pure energies. As all the positive energies were explored, we then invited this energy ball to meet our psychic beings. Here the embodied soul could give its advise, wisdom, and core energies to support these projects and bring them into manifestation at the service of the Divine. Some participants continued further into the transpersonal realms of golden or white light, bathing in how they are already completely fulfilled from within.

We are looking forward to giving the Male\Female Integration Workshop in Hamburg in March 2014!

The Dutch and Polish certainly had fun in the process of discovering the soul essence of each of their nations.

All experienced the love of bringing this essence to their own Psychic Being. We took some time to imagine what would be needed to convey the essential nation elements in a pavilion in Auroville, India.

We enjoyed the Naropa Institute in the southern Netherlands close to the sea and plan to return.

Many thanks to Josee for her great organization and recommendation that the Belgians attend this workshop soon.
